

Gavin Styles – Group Executive Director

Having been involved in the business in various project roles since the mid 1990's Gavin joined the Banks Group in July 2007 as Head of Legal Services, moving to the role of Group Executive Director with overall responsibility for the Mining business in 2010. Gavin also has responsibility for various functional teams within the Group.

Gavin read history at Kings College London, following which he undertook a post graduate diploma in law at College of Law London.

Prior to joining The Banks Group Gavin trained as a solicitor with Bond Dickenson (then Dickenson Dees), qualifying in their corporate team in 2005.

He is married with three young children and has a keen interest in rugby.

ENDS