

Simon Fisher – Group Finance Director

Simon joined The Banks Group as Group Finance Director in May 2015 after having spent nine years at Newcastle International Airport in a similar role.

He graduated with a degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Manchester University and went on to train as a Chartered Accountant with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Simon spent 12 years in a variety of roles with PricewaterhouseCoopers after which he left to join Domnick Hunter Group plc, an industrial products group, as their group financial planning manager. His time since then at the airport has seen him central to a number of key projects and the overall development of business.
